

Limos The Night (Goes On)
Undiscovered The Ibiza sunset soundtrack for 2000 is here and it's about as sexy as house music gets. With the feeling of inner power of 'Sunshine's Theme' by Dubtribe, 'The Night' doesn't so much drop and build as ebb and flow. There are crowd noises, a vocal sample from Roach Motel's track of the same name and though the beat comes in very late, when it does it's like a huge rush of serotonin. Kevin Yost's 'Dawn To Dusk Mix' chills things out a bit with upbeat Spanish guitar and melancholic piano, concentrating on the deep emotion rooted at the song's core. Meanwhile his 'Relentless Night Mix' works a 'Dark And Long' bassline and soft acid line for the comedown. This year's 'Cascades Of Colour'. ●●●●●JK
